AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. The liquidated damages clause in the Layberth Agreement is not enforceable under the law that applies to liquidated damages clauses.
2. The ATP INNOVATOR is not a “vessel” for purposes of asserting a maritime lien against it., and consequently there is no in rem jurisdiction.
3. The doctrines of setoff and partial satisfaction of the debt are specifically invoked.
4. The one satisfaction rule is invoked.
5. The ATP INNOVATOR is not a “good” under the Texas Bus. & Comm. Code.
6. To the extent federal law is determined by the Court to apply, Plaintiff’s state law claims are preempted.

7. Plaintiff has not fully complied with the strict requirements to obtain a writ of attachment under Texas law, as more fully set forth in Ch. 61 of the Texas Civ. Prac. & Rem Code. Claimant invokes all defenses available under Ch. 61.

8. Defendants invoke the Constitutional protections provided by the United States Supreme Court in Sniadach v. Family Fin. Corp., 395 U.S. 337 (1969), Fuentes v. Shevin, 407 U.S. 67 (1972), Mitchell v. W.T. Grant Co., 416 U.S. 600 (1974), and in all subsequent cases, federal and Texas.

9. Plaintiff has failed to satisfy the requirements for asserting a security interest under the Texas Uniform Commercial Code, or any applicable Uniform Commercial Code.

10. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, for its failure to satisfy conditions precedent.

11. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by its failure to mitigate.

12. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, under the doctrine of unclean hands, and other equitable provisions.

13. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because certain terms in the Layberth Agreement, including but not limited to the liquidated damages clause, constitute an unenforceable penalty, or provide Plaintiff with an impermissible double recovery.

14. Claimant asserts that the defense of contractual ambiguity, and assert the Layberth Agreement is ambiguous, in whole or in part.

15. Claimant asserts all defenses available to them under Article 9 of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code.

16. Claimant asserts the security interest Plaintiff asserts has not been properly perfected.

17. Claimant will rely on any and all further defenses that become known to it between now and the time of trial, or which may be justified by the evidence at trial.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Claimant prays: (1) that the Complaint be dismissed with prejudice, in whole or in part, (2) that it have judgment against Plaintiff stating that it is not liable to Plaintiff, and (3) for such other relief to which it may be justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted,
